

§ 537.510

International Monetary Fund are authorized. This section does not authorize any importation into the United States of any article that is a product of Burma.

§ 537.510 Third-country diplomatic and consular funds transfers.

All transactions that are related to funds transfers otherwise prohibited by §§ 537.201 and 537.202 and that are for the conduct of diplomatic or consular activities of third-country diplomatic or consular missions in Burma are authorized.

§ 537.511 Importation of accompanied baggage and household effects of U.S. diplomatic and consular officials.

U.S. diplomatic or consular officials entering the United States directly or indirectly from Burma are authorized to engage in all transactions incident to the importation into the United States of products of Burma as accompanied baggage or household effects, provided that such products are not intended for any other person or for sale and are not otherwise prohibited from importation under applicable United States laws.

§ 537.512 Importation for official or personal use by foreign diplomatic and consular officials.

All transactions incident to the importation into the United States of any article that is a product of Burma that is destined for official or personal use by personnel employed by a diplomatic mission or consulate in the United States are authorized, provided that such article is not intended for any other person or for sale and is not otherwise prohibited from importation under applicable United States laws.

§ 537.513 Importation and exportation of diplomatic pouches.

All transactions in connection with the importation into the United States or the exportation from the United States of diplomatic pouches and their contents are authorized.

§ 537.514 Importation of certain personal and household effects.

(a) A U.S. person who maintained a residence in Burma prior to July 28,

31 CFR Ch. V (7–1–11 Edition)

2003, is authorized to import into the United States personal and household effects that are products of Burma, including accompanied baggage and articles for family use, provided the imported items were purchased by the U.S. person prior to July 28, 2003, have been actually used abroad by the U.S. person or by other family members arriving from the same foreign household, are not intended for any other person or for sale, and are not otherwise prohibited from importation.

(b) A national of Burma who arrives in the United States after July 28, 2003, is authorized to import into the United States personal and household effects that are products of Burma, including accompanied baggage and articles for family use, provided the imported items are ordinarily incident to the Burmese national's arrival in the United States, have been actually used abroad by the Burmese national or by other family members arriving from the same foreign household, are not intended for any other person or for sale, and are not otherwise prohibited from importation.

§ 537.515 Importation of information or informational materials.

The importation of information or informational materials that are products of Burma and all transactions directly incident to such importation are authorized.

§ 537.516 Importation of Burmese-origin articles and incidental transactions.

(a) The importation of an article that is a product of Burma, otherwise prohibited by § 537.203, is authorized, provided the article was purchased prior to July 28, 2003, shipped from Burma to the United States prior to August 28, 2003, and is not property in which a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a) has an interest.

(b) All transactions otherwise prohibited by §§ 537.201 and 537.202 that are directly incident to the importation into the United States of an article that is a product of Burma are authorized, provided that:

(1) The importation is authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; or

(2) The importation occurred prior to August 28, 2003, and was not from a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a).

(c) All transactions otherwise prohibited by §§ 537.201 and 537.202 that are directly incident to the importation into a country other than the United States or Burma of an article that is a product of Burma are authorized, provided that:

(1) The article was purchased prior to July 28, 2003, shipped from Burma prior to August 28, 2003, and is not property in which a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a) has an interest; or

(2) The importation occurred prior to August 28, 2003, and was not from a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a).

(d) Financing agreements with respect to the importations described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section may be performed only according to their terms and may not be extended or renewed.

§ 537.517 Noncommercial, personal remittances.

(a)(1) U.S. depository institutions, U.S. registered brokers or dealers in securities, and U.S. registered money transmitters are authorized to process transfers of funds to or from Burma or for or on behalf of an individual ordinarily resident in Burma in cases in which the transfer involves a non-commercial, personal remittance, provided the following conditions are met:

(i) The transfer is not by, to, or through a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a), except as explained in § 537.404 of this part; and

(ii) Total remittances to the territory of Burma in any consecutive 3-month period do not exceed $300 per Burmese household, regardless of the number of individuals comprising the household.

(2) Noncommercial, personal remittances do not include charitable donations to or for the benefit of an entity or funds transfers for use in supporting or operating a business.

NOTE TO PARAGRAPH (a) OF § 537.517: U.S. persons may make charitable donations to nongovernmental organizations in Burma that are authorized to operate pursuant to § 537.523, provided that the donations are made pursuant to § 537.523 and the terms of the authorization.

(b) The transferring institutions identified in paragraph (a) of this section may rely on the originator of a funds transfer with regard to compliance with paragraph (a) of this section, provided that the transferring institution does not know or have reason to know that the funds transfer is not in compliance with paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) This section does not authorize transactions with respect to property blocked pursuant to § 537.201, except as explained in § 537.404(b) of this part.

§ 537.518 Transactions incident to exportations to Burma.

All transactions otherwise prohibited by §§ 537.201 and 537.202 that are ordinarily incident to an exportation to Burma of goods, technology or services, other than financial services, are authorized, provided the exportation is not to or on behalf of a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a). This section does not authorize a financial institution that is a U.S. person to advise or confirm any financing by a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a).

§ 537.519 Activities undertaken pursuant to certain pre-May 21, 1997 agreements.

Except as prohibited by § 537.203, U.S. persons are authorized to engage in any activity, or any transaction incident to an activity, undertaken pursuant to an agreement entered into prior to 12:01 a.m., eastern daylight time, on May 21, 1997, or pursuant to the exercise of rights under such an agreement, provided that the parties to the agreement include:

(a) The Government of Burma or a nongovernmental entity in Burma, and

(b) An entity organized under the laws of a foreign state.
